

Meetings and Meeting Rooms for Microsoft Teams

Partners who demonstrate deep knowledge, extensive experience, and proven success delivering Meetings and Meeting Rooms services and solutions for Microsoft Teams may seek the Meetings and Meeting Rooms for Microsoft Teams Advanced Specialization.

The way we work has rapidly evolved. With more employees working remotely and on the go, meeting needs have changed. For many organizations, Microsoft Teams is the tool that facilitates a level of collaboration and engagement on par with face-to-face meetings. In April 2020, we saw more than 200 million Microsoft Teams meeting participants in a single day – generating more than 4.1 billion meeting minutes. In fact, “Microsoft has seen two years’ worth of digital transformation in just two months.”¹

Microsoft Teams delivers a unique, end-to-end meeting experience that brings back the human element of face-to-face interaction while helping people stay focused before, during, and after the meeting.

Creating a Meetings and Meeting Rooms practice for Microsoft Teams provides partners with a unique opportunity to drive customer business value and simplified meeting technologies that can increase customer lifetime value and develop new revenue streams for partners.

The Meetings and Meeting Rooms for Microsoft Teams Advanced Specialization allows partners with an active Gold Cloud Productivity Competency to further differentiate their organizations, demonstrate their capabilities to deploy and manage meeting services and solutions for Microsoft Teams, and build stronger connections with customers.

Partners who earn an advanced specialization will have a customer-facing label displayed on their business profile, gain access to specific go-to-market programs, and get prioritization in customer searches in the Microsoft partner directory. For those reasons, this opportunity is available only to partners who meet these additional, stringent requirements.
